ANTI-CORRUPTION AND BRIBERY POLICY

1. Policy statement

- 1.1 It is our policy to conduct all of our business in an honest and ethical manner. We take a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and are committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships wherever we operate.
- 1.2 The purpose of this policy is to:
- 1.2.1 set out our responsibilities, and of those working for us, in observing and upholding our position on bribery and corruption; and
 - 1.2.2 provide information and guidance to those working for us on how to recognise and deal with bribery and corruption issues.
- 1.3 Bribery and corruption is punishable for individuals by up to ten years' imprisonment and if we are found to have taken part in corruption we could face an unlimited fine, be excluded from tendering for public contracts and face damage to our reputation. We therefore take our legal responsibilities very seriously.
- 1.4 In this policy, third party means any individual or organisation you come into contact with during the course of your work for us.

2. Who is covered by the policy?

This policy applies to all individuals working at all levels and grades, including senior managers, officers, directors, employees and Foreign Agents. It is important that all Overseas Agents are informed of this Policy and asked to sign a disclaimer stating that Cooper & Turner Ltd. are not accountable for any action they may take which is contrary to UK Laws, including the Bribery Act.

3. What is bribery

A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal advantage.

Examples:

Offering a bribe

You offer a potential client tickets to a major sporting event, but only if they agree to do business with us.

This would be an offence as you are making the offer to gain a commercial and contractual advantage. We may also be found to have committed an offence because the offer has been made to obtain business for us. It may also be an offence for the potential client to accept your offer.

Receiving a bribe

A supplier gives your nephew a job, but makes it clear that in return they expect you to use your influence in our organisation to ensure we continue to do business with them.

It is an offence for a supplier to make such an offer. It would be an offence for you to accept the offer as you would be doing so to gain a personal advantage.

4. Gifts and hospitality

- 4.1 This policy does not prohibit normal and appropriate hospitality (given and received) to or from third parties.
- 4.2 The giving or receipt of gifts is not prohibited, if the following requirements are met:
 - 4.2.1 it is not made with the intention of influencing a third party to obtain or retain business or a business advantage, or to reward the provision or retention of business or a business advantage, or in explicit or implicit exchange for favours or benefits;
 - 4.2.2 it complies with local law;
 - 4.2.3 it is given in our name, not in your name;
 - 4.2.4 it does not include cash or a cash equivalent (such as gift certificates or vouchers);
 - 4.2.5 it is appropriate in the circumstances. For example, in the UK it is customary for small gifts to be given at Christmas time;
 - 4.2.6 taking into account the reason for the gift, it is of an appropriate type and value and given at an appropriate time; and
 - 4.2.7 it is given openly, not secretly;
- 4.3 We appreciate that the practice of giving business gifts varies between countries and regions and what may be normal and acceptable in one region may not be in another. The test to be applied is whether in all the circumstances the gift or hospitality is reasonable and justifiable. The intention behind the gift should always be considered.

5. What is not acceptable?

It is not acceptable for you (or someone on your behalf) to:

- 5.1.1 give, promise to give, or offer, a payment, gift or hospitality with the expectation or hope that a business advantage will be received, or to reward a business advantage already given;
- 5.1.2 accept payment from a third party that you know or suspect is offered with the expectation that it will obtain a business advantage for them;
- 5.1.3 accept a gift or hospitality from a third party if you know or suspect that it is offered or provided with an expectation that a business advantage will be provided by us in return;
- 5.1.4 threaten or retaliate against another worker who has refused to commit a bribery offence or who has raised concerns under this policy; or
- 5.1.5 engage in any activity that might lead to a breach of this policy.

6. Facilitation payments and kickbacks

- 6.1 We do not make, and will not accept, facilitation payments or "kickbacks" of any kind. If you are asked to make a payment on our behalf, you should always be mindful of what the payment is for and whether the amount requested is proportionate to the goods or services provided. You should always ask for a receipt which details the reason for the payment. If you have any suspicions, concerns or queries regarding a payment, you should raise these with your manager.
- 6.2 Kickbacks are typically payments made in return for a business favour or advantage. All workers must avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, that a facilitation payment or kickback will be made or accepted by us.

7. Donations

We only make charitable donations that are legal and ethical under local laws and practices. No donation must be offered or made without the prior approval of your manager.

8. Your responsibilities

- 8.1 You must ensure that you read, understand and comply with this policy.
- 8.2 The prevention, detection and reporting of bribery and other forms of corruption are the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. All workers are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy.
- 8.3 You must notify your manager as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with this policy has occurred, or may occur in the future. For example, if a client or potential client offers you something to gain a business advantage with us, or indicates to you that a gift or payment is required to secure their business. Further "red flags" that may indicate bribery or corruption are set out in the Schedule.

- 8.4 Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for gross misconduct. We reserve our right to terminate our contractual relationship with other workers if they breach this policy.

9. How to raise a concern

You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of malpractice at the earliest possible stage. If you are unsure whether a particular act constitutes bribery or corruption, or if you have any other queries, these should be raised with your manager.

What to do if you are a victim of bribery or corruption

It is important that you tell your manager as soon as possible if you are offered a bribe by a third party, are asked to make one, suspect that this may happen in the future, or believe that you are a victim of another form of unlawful activity.

10. Protection

- 10.1 Workers who refuse to accept or offer a bribe, or those who raise concerns or report another's wrongdoing, are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. We aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

- 10.2 We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of refusing to take part in bribery or corruption, or because of reporting in good faith their suspicion that an actual or potential bribery or other corruption offence has taken place, or may take place in the future. Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform your manager immediately. If the matter is not remedied, and you are an employee, you should raise it formally using our Grievance Procedure, which can be found in the company handbook

11. Training and communication

- 11.1 Training on this policy forms part of the induction process for all new workers. All existing workers will receive relevant training on how to implement and adhere to this policy.

- 11.2 Our zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption must be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and as appropriate thereafter.

11.3 This Policy must be communicated to all Foreign Agents and if a signed disclaimer cannot be obtained then it is imperative that they understand all possible repercussions if they do not comply.

12. Who is responsible for the policy?

12.1 The board of directors has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all those under our control comply with it.

12.2 Management at all levels are responsible for ensuring those reporting to them are made aware of and understand this policy and are given adequate and regular training on it.

13. Monitoring and review

13.1 All workers are responsible for the success of this policy and should ensure they use it to disclose any suspected danger or wrongdoing.

13.2 Workers are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to your manager.

13.3 This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time.

Schedule Potential risk scenarios: "red flags"

The following is a list of possible red flags that may arise during the course of you working for us and which may raise concerns under various anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws. The list is not intended to be exhaustive and is for illustrative purposes only.

If you encounter any of these red flags while working for us, you must report them promptly to your manager:

- 1.1 you become aware that a third party engages in, or has been accused of engaging in, improper business practices;
- 1.2 you learn that a third party has a reputation for paying bribes, or requiring that bribes are paid to them.
- 1.3 a third party insists on receiving a commission or fee payment before committing to sign up to a contract with us, or carrying out a government function or process for us;
- 1.4 a third party requests payment in cash and/or refuses to sign a formal commission or fee agreement, or to provide an invoice or receipt for a payment made;
- 1.5 a third party requests that payment is made to a country or geographic location different from where the third party resides or conducts business;
- 1.6 a third party requests an unexpected additional fee or commission to "facilitate" a service;
- 1.7 a third party demands lavish entertainment or gifts before commencing or continuing contractual negotiations or provision of services;
- 1.8 a third party requests that a payment is made to "overlook" potential legal violations;
- 1.9 a third party requests that you provide employment or some other advantage to a friend or relative;
- 1.10 you receive an invoice from a third party that appears to be non-standard or customised;
- 1.11 a third party insists on the use of side letters or refuses to put terms agreed in writing;
- 1.12 you notice that we have been invoiced for a commission or fee payment that appears large given the service stated to have been provided;
- 1.13 a third party requests or requires the use of an agent, intermediary, consultant, distributor or supplier that is not typically used by or known to us;
- 1.14 you are offered an unusually generous gift or offered lavish hospitality by a third party.
